THEME OR NO THEME?

Directions: Read the following sentences and determine if each is a theme or not a theme. If the sentence is a theme, mark the sentence with a T. If the sentence is not a theme, mark it NT.

_____1. Friends will be there when you need them.
_____2. Sad and a little scary.
_____3. People finding out who their true friends are.
_____4. Keep friends and make new friends during your freshman year.
_____5. Life teaches people how to deal with problems.
_____6. Speak up when you get hurt.
_____7. People judging others.
_____8. Life isn’t always fair.
_____9. No one person can be a group. It takes two people to be friends.
_____10. Melinda is rejected by other people because they don’t like what she did.
_____11. Don’t let the world hold you down.
_____12. Telling people how you really feel.
_____13. If things aren’t going someone’s way, they can always get better.
_____14. The opinions of other people can hurt.
_____15. About her life story and what bad happens in her year.
_____16. Speaking up.
_____17. No matter how hard something is to say, a person needs to speak.
_____18. self-belonging.
_____19. A girl who is trying to deal with bad things that happened to her.
_____20. How hard it is to deal with rape.
_____21. Sometimes people lie and do mean things.
_____22. No one talked to her after she called the cops.
_____23. Dealing with pressure.
_____24. It can be hard to deal with life after something bad happens.
_____25. Be yourself.